

SERVICE NEWS

Cabells to Entertain At Informal Party

By EVELYN M. DENT

The Secretary of the Air Force and Mrs. Donald Quarles, and the Air Force Chief of Staff, Gen. Nathan F. Twining, and Mrs. Twining will be the honor guests on Tuesday, May 22, when Lt. Gen. and Mrs. Charles P. Cabell entertain at an informal supper party.

The 7 o'clock affair will be one of Mrs. Cabell's famous Texas-Mexican suppers. They hope to entertain in the garden of their delightful quarters at Bolling Air Force Base if weather permits.

On Friday, Gen. and Mrs. Cabell and their daughter,

Catharine, are going to West Point to see their son, Cadet Cabell, jr., and watch the first of this season's cadet parades. With them will be their houseguest, Mrs. Cabell's sister, Mrs. Frederick A. Marx of Pasadena, Calif.

Gen. Cabell, who is Deputy Director, Central Intelligence, will return to Washington after the parade, but the feminine contingent will stay in New York for a few days, shopping and show going.

Mrs. Donald Dunford, has also been staying with her sister, Mrs. Cabell, since coming from Germany and waiting the return of her husband, retired Brig. Gen. Dunford from Europe.

The Dunfords have taken an apartment in the Westchester and will move in sometime this week end.